SUMMER SILES THAT ARE SENSATIONAL BARGAINS.

It is really more sensational to quote Oream and Black Japanese Silks at prices only little less than prevailing than fancy silks at much less than usual quotations. We therefore head this list with the following:

$1 for 30-inch Cream Japanese Silks, worth $1.25 yard. 75e for 27-inch Cream Japanese Sliks, worth $1 yard. 63c for 27-inch Cream Japanese Silks, worth 75c yard. 50c for 24-inch Cream Japanese Silks, worth 59c yard. 68s for 24-inch Black Waterproof Japanese Silk, worth 85s yard. BEFOther Black Japanese Silks from 50c to $1.25 a yard. These and the FANCY SILES AT 490 AND 39c. WORTH UP To $1 YD.

The $1 quality figured India Silks offered at 49c a yard have been brightened with a newly-acquired lot, having grounds of old blue, heliotrope, light blue, myrtle, pink, tan, navy, black, cardinal, golden brown, old rose, on which in white and contrasting colors are fantastic figures, some of which are combined with stripes. The striped silks at 39c a yard cannot be duplicated. We still have stripes combining black and white, navy and gold, gray and white, ciel and marine, gray and black, cream and navy, cream and cardinal, cream and black

SOME RELIABLE CREAM WOOL DRESS FABRICS.

You know how the cotton mixed or even the all-wool but shoddy "creams" wear. You know how soon they soil, how badly they clean. The following are the best at unusually moderate prices:

54-inch Best English Cheviots, $1.25 yard. 40-inch Silk Warp Sublime, $1.15 yard. 45-inch English Summer Broadcloth, $1 yard. 45-inch Silk-finish Henrietta, 75c yard. 45-inch Reliable French Serges, 75c yard.

40-inch Summer-weight Whipcords, 75c yard. 40-inch Wire-woven Serges, 50c yard. 40-inch Pure Wool Cashmere, 50c yard. 40-inch Graceful Draping Albatross, 500 yard. 40-inch Nun's Veiling, 50c vard.

CHARMING SUMMER DRESS MATERIALS AT SENSATIONAL PRICES.

Crepe de Chine in lavender, nile and light blue. Looks like silk. The part that is cotton is cunningly hidden by the maker. Prevailing price has been 680 yard. Here until now at 50c yard. Here now and until all sold at only 25c yard. Feather-weight All-wool Crepon in art shades that alone tell you the fabric must be superior. It was imported to retail at $1 a yard. It is here at only

A lot of Dotted Swiss has been secured to sell at 12%c, 15c and 18c, not a yard of which is worth less than 20c. And here is Batiste with cream and black grounds and colored dots and figures at 23c instead of 30c yard. The Black Lawns in checks and stripes at 20c

Hints for children's dresses among the 27-inch Embroidery Figureings secured to sell at 50c and 60c yard, though worth up to $1.

RIBBONS, TRIMMINGS AND LACES WORTH KNOWING OF. Superior Quality Silk-faced Velvet Ribbons, from 1/4 to 2 inches wide, Sc to 23c yard. Not only superior quality, but surerior shades. Another lot of those 214-inch wide Satin and G. G. Ribbons have been secured so that all the desirable shades are now here, coupled with 25c quality for 15c yard. No more of those

4-inch Bengalines, so please hurry; 25c instead of 48c a yard has lowered that giant stock to a little pile you can reach the top of. And note that the Narrow-beaded Gimps, so much used for silk dresses, are included in Trimmings offered at 10 per cent discount. Laces are here in wholesale quantities. Ask for following numbers and you'll be shown the best values at present in the Palais Royal.

No. 721 is a set of Black Bourdon Lace suitable for bretelles: 7-inch-wide for 68c. yard, Sinches for 85c. yard. Nos. 21 to 27 include Black Bourdons, in net effect, 314 to 5 inches wide, 30c to 50c yard. Nos. 45 to 50 include 48 inch-wide Lace Drapery Nets, worth from $1.48 to $2, for only $1.10a yard. No. 58 is a set of White Applique Lace, 4% inches, for 25c yard; 6 inches, for 30c yard; 12 inches, for 55c yard. No. 63 is also Applique worth more than is asked: 35c yard for 6 inches and 55c yard for 9 inches wide. Nos. 100 to 107 comprise Cream Suk Chantilly Laces, 3% to 10 inches wide

The L'Allegro Pleasure Club held its weekly meeting at Miss Landons' having as visitorsMr. and Miss Rose and Miss Campbell.

A most enjoyable children's party was given on Saturday evening by Miss Woodruff at her home, 1227 S street. The rooms were tastefully decorated with ferms and dasies. The little people entered into the apirit of the hour with the happy abanden of youth, and dancing was induged in and many games were played. When supper was served each child was furnished with a fanciful cap, and the grotesque grouping about the table will be long remembered by friends who were invited to view the scene. COURT OF APPEALS. No Decision in the Bush Case for Some

DECISIONS WILL BE DELAYED ON ACCOUNT OF LACK OF FACILITIES FOR THE COURT-THE ROCK CREEK PARK AGAIN REFERRED TO-SOME CASES TAKEN UP.

Houghton, Robinson Molinard, Nicholson Har- liquor act of March 3, 1898, of selling liquor withris, Edgeworth Frick and John, Horatio and out a new license, the court room was crowded Robert Garrett, jr., and six bridesmaids, Miss to the utmost this morning, a majority of Robert Garrett, Jr., and six bridesmaids, Miss May Belle Stewart, Miss Jane Fuller, Miss Frances Lyell of Richmond. Miss Houghton and Mise May Harris of Baltimore and Miss Nannie Williamson. Miss Bessie Williamson attended her sister as maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Arthur Robinson of Baltimore.

The bride came into church with her father. Chief Engineer Thom Williamson. She was youthfully and most becomingly gowned in white satin. The round waist was outlined by a bertha of duchem lace and the sleeves were short puffs of the satin. The trained skirt was quite long and plain. A cluster of orange blossoms held the tuile veil in place. The bouquet was of lilies of the valley, and she also carried a white bound prayer book, from which the service was read. Her diamond and pearl ornaments were the gifts of the groom.

The bridesmaids were pictures in dotted white mushin made with round waists and full skirts. Three rows of apple-green ribbon formed quillings on the skirts, and shoulder knots and belts and bows were worn. Butterfly ribbon bows were in their hair and their bouquets of white carnations were tied with more green ribbon.

A reception for the bridal party, the relatives and a few personal friends, with those who came on from Baltimore, followed at the residence of Chief Engineer Williamson, and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Hall started for their wedding trip. They will reside in Baltimore. The bride's going away gown was a stylish costume of gray cloth. She received a number of elegant presents.

On Saturday Miss May Belle Stewart entertained the wedding party at a breakfast.

Owing to the urgency and great importance of a decision of the court in the Bush and Dempsey cases it is therefore not improbable that the two cases will be decided in a few days.

Chief Justice Alvey announced that the court Chief Justice Alvey announced that the court had promulgated additional rules of the court, referring mainly to appeals in patent cases and to the scale of costs, and that the new rules would stand on and after today.

BOCK CREEK PARK. Mr. R. Ross Perry, representing the government in the case of the United States against Cooper et al., the Rock Creek Park case, asked Cooper et al., the Rock Creek Park case, asked that the case be transferred from the Court in General Term to the Court of Appeals, that the latter court might be asked to dismiss further proceedings and thereby remove the cloud on the titles of those owners whose lands would not be taken. Chief Justice Alvey, however, stated that it was not quite clear that the Court in General Term did not possess that right, and suggested that the question of the jurisdiction of the court should first be raised by making the application there, to which Mr. Perry assented.

Perry assented.
